

Student: _____

Speech topic: _____

Below are the evaluation criteria for all oral presentations as listed on your course syllabus, indicating which areas require the most improvement in your talk.

weaker

stronger

1. Content. Do you accurately capture what the author was saying? Is your own claim clear? Is your evidence for your claim convincing? Have you turned in an acceptable written outline of your talk?

X-----X-----X-----X-----X

2. Delivery. Have you kept to the time specified? Do you project enough for everyone to hear you? Does your inflection and emphasis help convey your meaning (as in normal conversation)? Are you avoiding the use of slang and crutch phrases? Do you seem to be enjoying yourself (even if you aren't)?

X-----X-----X-----X-----X

Additional comments:

Grade: _____ out of _____

Student: _____

Speech topic: _____

Below are the evaluation criteria for all oral presentations as listed on your course syllabus, indicating which areas require the most improvement in your talk.

weaker

stronger

1. Content. Do you accurately capture what the author was saying? Is your own claim clear? Is your evidence for your claim convincing? Have you turned in an acceptable written outline of your talk?

X-----X-----X-----X-----X

2. Delivery. Have you kept to the time specified? Do you project enough for everyone to hear you? Does your inflection and emphasis help convey your meaning (as in normal conversation)? Are you avoiding the use of slang and crutch phrases? Do you seem to be enjoying yourself (even if you aren't)?

X-----X-----X-----X-----X

Additional comments:

Grade: _____ out of _____